

THE Daily Telegraph

Features

Your Say ... / Letters to the Editor

1599 words

5 September 2009

Daily Telegraph

DAITEL

1 - State

29

English

Copyright 2009 News Ltd. All Rights Reserved

IN REGARD to the main argument against a Bill of Rights for Australia, namely that unelected judges should not have more power than elected politicians, ask yourself this question: Who is more likely to lie to the public and to make decisions which affect others based solely on self-interest?

Jody Bailey Kahibah